AMERICAN SOCIETY OF TRAINING DIRECTORS

18 OCT 1962

Dear Sir:

The American Society of Training Directors, Washington, D. C. Chapter announces its Tenth Annual Awards Program which will give recognition to those men and women in the Washington Metropolitan area who have made outstanding contributions to, and in, the field of training and development.

In this period of rapidly changing technology, increased attention is being given to the need for establishing and improving employee training and development programs to provide needed capability and highly qualified manpower resources.

We would appreciate your cooperation in giving the widest possible publicity to the enclosed announcement and in encouraging the submission of nominations by key officials of your organization.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Cocci

Announcement

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF TRAINING DIRECTORS
WASHINGTON, D. C. CHAPTER
October, 1962

The Washington, D. C. Chapter of the American Society of Training Directors announces its Tenth Annual (1962) Awards Program. The purpose of this program is to recognize outstanding contributions made during 1962 to, and in, the field of employee training and development. One award, in the form of an appropriate wall plaque, will be given in each of the following categories:

1. Individual Award - to be granted to an individual for an outstanding contribution (or contributions) for and to the training and development profession.
2. Organization Award - to be granted to an organization for an outstanding contribution (or outstanding contributions) to the training and development profession.
3. Single Program Award - to be granted to an individual for the development of an outstanding single training and development program.
4. Function Award - to be granted to the individual who did the most effective job in developing or improving the training and development function in his company or agency.
5. Special Recognition Award - to be granted to either an individual or an organization for an outstanding contribution to, or in, training and development which is not covered by any of the above categories.

Awards will be presented at the Chapter's Annual Awards Dinner to be held Tuesday, February 5, 1963, at the Officers Club, Navy Yard Annex, U. S. Naval Station, Washington, D. C. (formerly Naval Weapons Plant).

You are invited to nominate one or more persons for awards in any or all of the above-listed categories. Nominees do not have to be employed by your organization but all nominations must be thoroughly documented.

Nominations are to be forwarded in triplicate to:

Mr. John A. Cocci
Chairman, Awards Committee
Office of Industrial Relations
Navy Department
Washington 25, D. C.

and must be postmarked not later than midnight, December 1, 1962.

Several nomination forms are enclosed. If additional copies of the enclosed forms are needed, you may either reproduce these forms or obtain extra copies by calling Mr. Cocci at Oxford 54829 (Code 11, Extension 54829).

The Awards Committee reserves the right not to grant an award in one or more of the named categories, if, in its opinion, the quality of the nominations received does not warrant the granting of an award.
